

The Scottish Languages Baccalaureate

What is the Baccalaureate?

It is a fairly new award for people who are simply interested in languages.

It is useful if you think you may study languages at college/uni or study a combination which involves a language

e.g. Music and a language

Chemistry and a language

Who can do it?

- You do not need to do the full BACC. You can also do the stand alone Interdisciplinary Project.
- This is worth half an Advanced Higher.
- You do a project on a topic which interests you. This must involve a language.
- To do this you should have 1 language Higher at C level or above or have a strong connection to languages e.g. speak a language other than English very well.

What could the project be?

Anything which interests you with a language connection. For example:

Sport

Geography

Drama

Music

Art

Fashion

Food

The options are endless.....

Project combinations from last few years.....

- Languages and education
- French and Geography (fracking)
- Spanish and Drama
- Spanish and History/Politics
- French, Art and Science
- French and Journalism

Interested?

Please see Mrs Tosh if you are interested.

Please indicate if full Bacc or Project only.
