

SHOW RACISM THE RED CARD CREATIVE COMPETITION 2015

Broughton students Hannah Crowe, Faithful Bentoro and Natalia Ellingham were all finalists of this year's creative competition with their fantastic research project.

They were invited, along with Mr Cudlipp, to the awards ceremony held at Hampden Park on 19 March.

On 18 February their work was assessed by the final judging panel, which this year was made up of:

Liam Craig – Club Captain at Hibernian FC

Keith Bruce – Arts Editor at the Glasgow Herald

PC David Gillanders – Police Constable and member of the National Safer Communities Team

As well as two female footballers from Glasgow City Football Club.

All students who attended were given a goodie bag and had the opportunity to do a stadium tour of Hampden.

Our students ended up being highly commended in S1-S3 Group. Well done girls!

You can read the full article here:

<http://www.srtrc.org/news/news-and-events?news=5702>