

Tech is the fastest-growing industry in the world (with exciting, challenging, fun and well-paid career prospects!) and there's never been a better time to get a foot in the door.

We're calling all young tech industry hopefuls to join us on 16–17 October for QA Apprenticeships Open Days in partnership with Microsoft. Students can:

- Learn more about tech apprenticeships and submit an application
- Find a tech career path that suits their interests – from digital marketer to software developer to IT architect
- Check out the exciting employers seeking apprentices, like the BBC, ASOS, Vodafone and O2
- Pick up new skills from our experts on interviewing and building a personal brand
