

Broughton High School needs ACTIVE PARENTS

Play your part in making Broughton brilliant!

Parent Council

Are you interested in how the school is performing? Can you help work with the head and the leadership team to support the school improvement plan? Are you keen to participate in consultations and be a strong parent voice? If so the Parent Council is for you.

Broughton Association

Are you good at organising events and generating income, and deciding how to spend it? Maybe you have time and energy to get involved practically, turning up to help, or providing baking? Or you could run our 200 club - school lottery. If so the Broughton Association is the place for you.

Communications

Maybe you are great at using different communications methods to get the word out. Can you improve our websites and messaging? If so get involved in how we communicate

Broughton Works

Are you keen that every child has the life skills and knowledge for the world of work? Can you help us provide a range of events and activities to help our children learn about different careers? Then you might enjoy getting involved with Broughton Works.

If you want to get involved in any way,
simply email:
clerk.bhspc@broughtonhighpc.org

If you want to stay involved :
