Broughton Secondary School

: : SCHOOL SONG : :

"Broughton for Ever"

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF THE TEACHERS, STUDENTS, AND PUPILS WHO DIED FOR THEIR COUNTRY IN THE GREAT WAR

Words by

GEORGE OGILVIE, M.A.

English Master

Music by

GEORGE HUME, Mus. Bac. (Edin.)

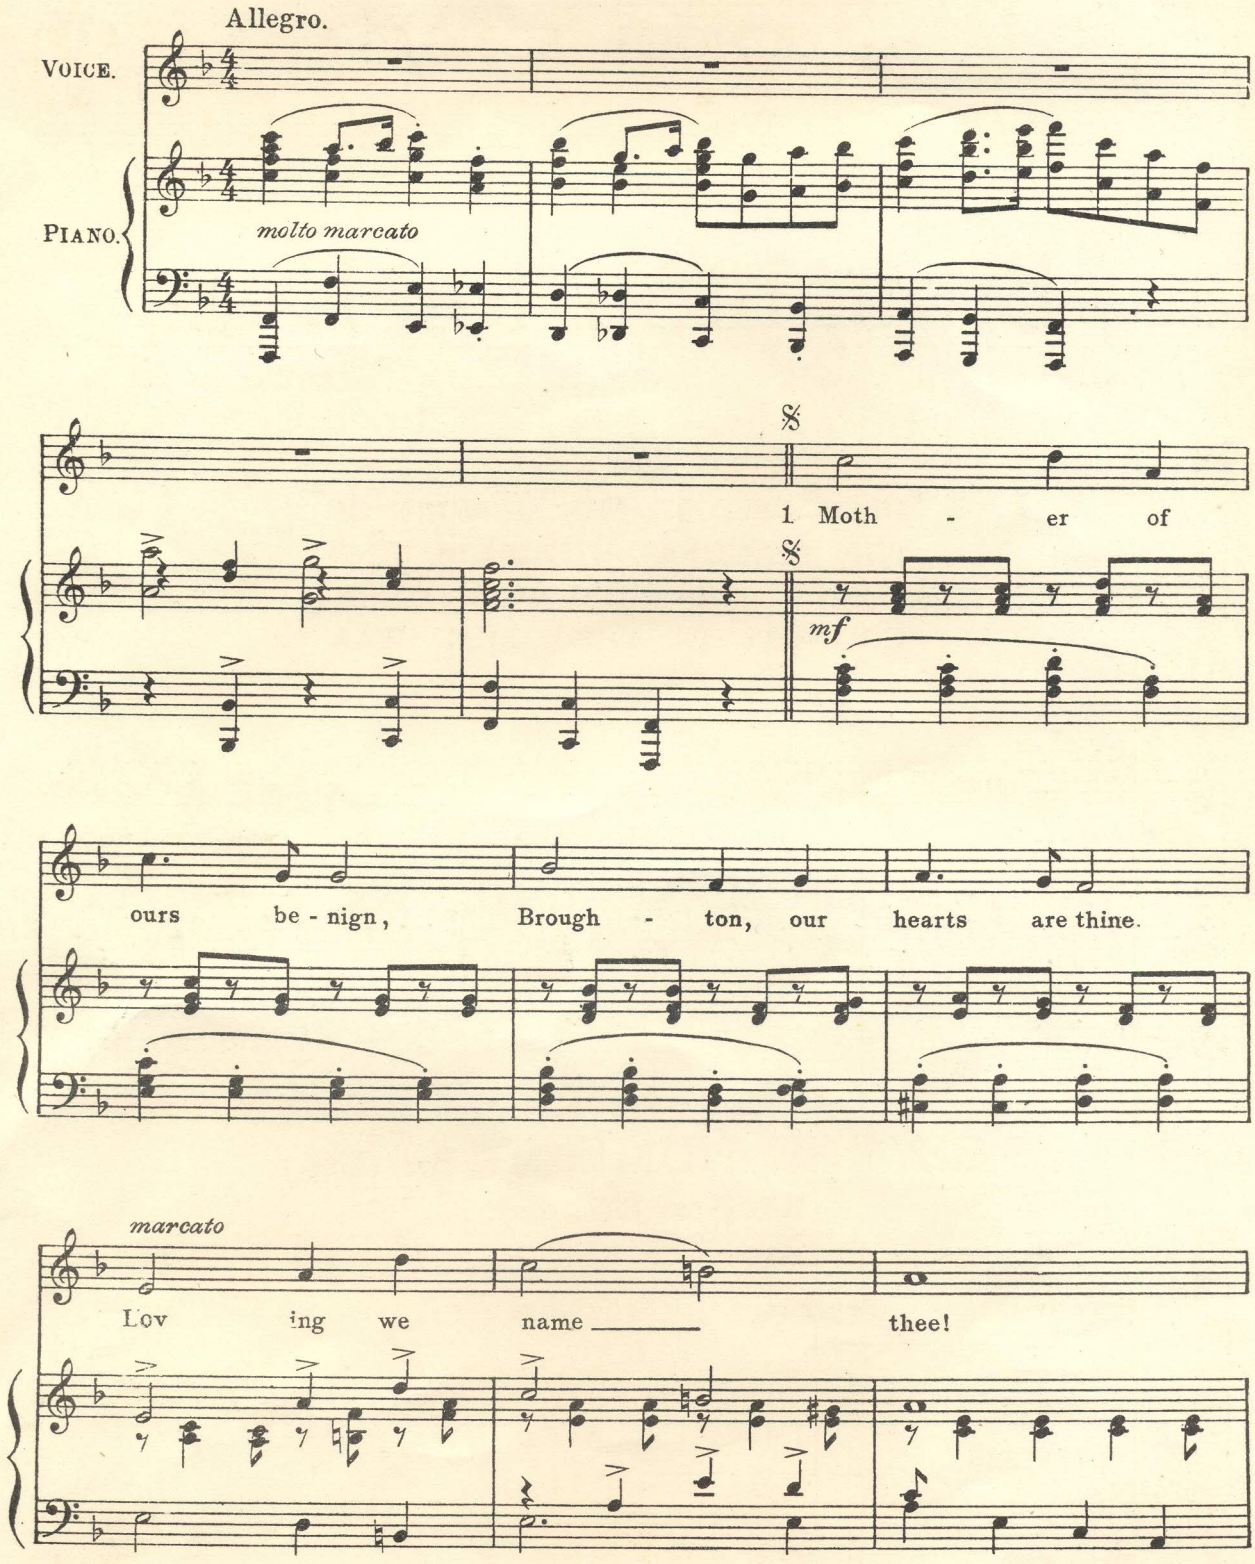
Broughton Elem. Sch.

Copyright

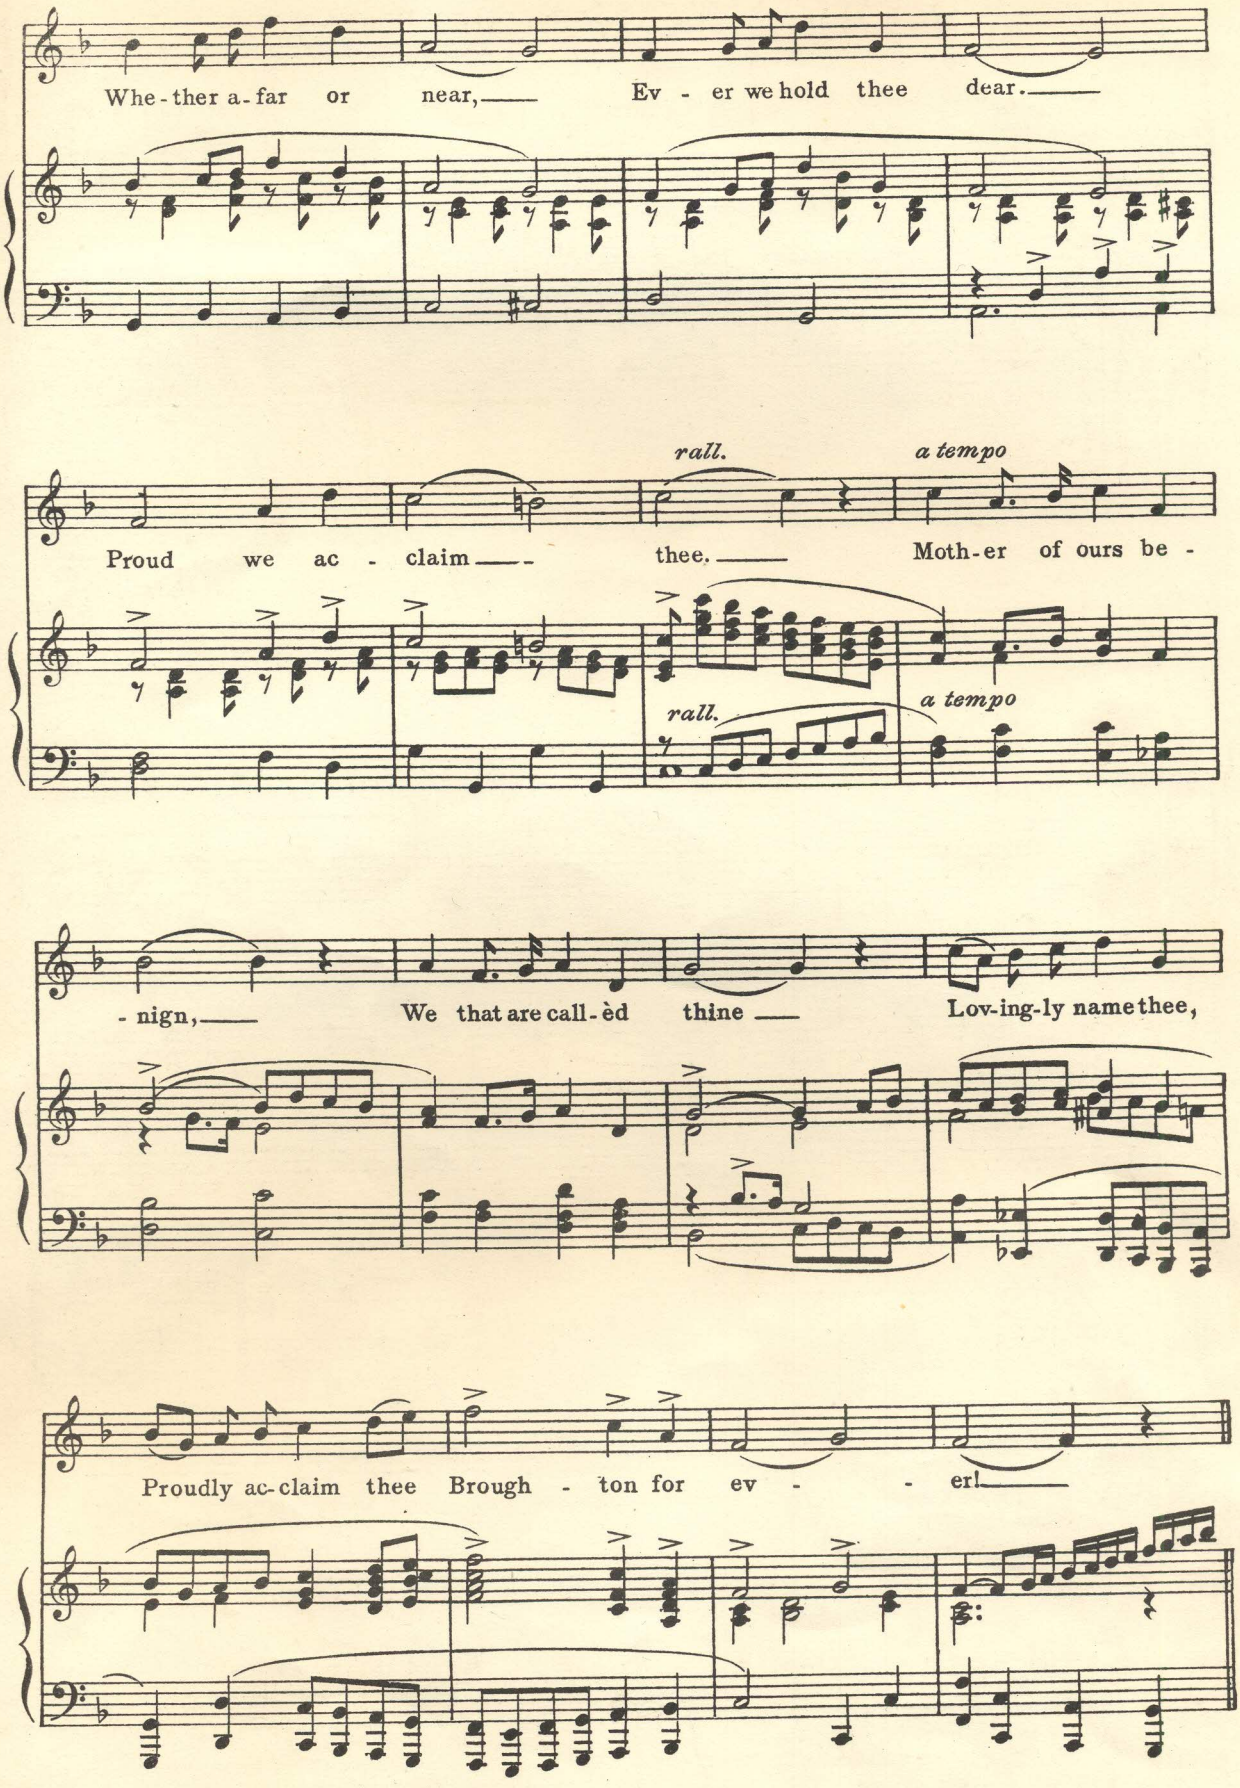
BROUGHTON FOR EVER.

Words by
GEORGE OGILVIE, M.A.

Music by
GEORGE HUME, Mus. Bac. (Edin.)



Copyright 1917.



Whe-ther a-far or near, Ev - er we hold thee dear.
rall.
a tempo
Proud we ac - claim thee. Moth-er of ours be - rall.
a tempo
- nign, We that are call-èd thine Lov-ing-ly name thee,
Proudly ac-claim thee Brough - ton for ev - - er!

HARMONISED CHORUS.

2. Others may vaunt a scroll
Rich with great names in roll:
Theirs be their glory.
Time is but young as yet—
Strong in the strength of it
Write we our story.
Chorus: Mother of ours, etc.

3. Laud we the pioneers,
Who in our dawn of years
Made for us clearing.
Where they have gone before,
Or in the arts or war,
March we unfearing.
Chorus: Mother of ours, etc.

4. Proud we salute our dead,
Where they lie gathered
Each to his sleeping;
Bearing the shock of strife,
Buying us fame with life,
Sure for our keeping.
Chorus: Mother of ours, etc.

5. For all we owe to these,
For all thy memories
Dear, unforgotten;
This be the prayer we raise—
Thy days be happy days,
God save thee, Broughton!
Chorus: Mother of ours, etc.